LOCAL STREET CAR SERVICE IS AGAIN AT A STANDSTILL

Men Ceased Work At Midnight, and all cars are idle For Time Being

SITUATION REMAINS VERY QUIET

At 2:15 o'clock this morning the last car was run into the car barn near Twelfth street, the crew went home, and for the time being all local activities of a transportation character have ceased. The motormen and conductors on the Pittsburgh and Charleroi street car line, as well as those on all the Pittsburgh lines ceased work at midnight, or at the end of their respective runs, and the contest is now on for the original demands which the men made three months ago, of a general advance of 12 cents an hour, making the minimum wage 56 cents and the maximum 60 cents an hour.

Superintendent Yost, of the local line, received preliminary warning about 4:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon that the prospect was for a strike, and at 11:45 last night he was informed that the men would cease work at midnight. This information was verified beginning with 12 o'clock and as rapidly as the men brought in their cars they went home, not to return until the differences between the employes and the company have been settled.

Just how long the strike will last is of course a question. The men expressed themselves as being disappointed with the decision of the War Labor Board, which granted an advance of 12 per cent, or about 6 cents an hour additional.

Two meetings were held Thursday at which the men voted unanimously to remain idle until the company grants their demands. and the issue is now on. There was no disturbance at any of the car barns, the men simply delivered their cars as usual, and after commenting with one another briefly on the situation went to their homes. As a matter of fact the situation is expected to remain very quiet throughout the controversy. The general public which has been using street cars for travel will have to use other means in getting back and forth to work. and it is expected that jitney service, improvised and otherwise will experience quite a boom while the strike is on.

DADDY LONG LEGS AT COYLE THEATRE

Daddy Long Legs is declared by all who have seen it, the best of Mary Pickford's many screen successes. The picture was shown at the Coyle theatre Thursday and will be repeated today and tomorrow. Wesley Bosson delighted the audience with his singing of "Daddy Long Legs," a popular song that has been written expressly for and dedicated to this picture.

GENERAL COMMITTEE MEETS THIS EVENING

A meeting oif the general committee of the home-coming celebration to be held in Charleroi on Thursday next, will be held in the public meeting room of the borough building, this evening at 8 o'clock. At this meeting the various sub committees will make reports of progress, while general details of the celebration will be considered. President Schafer desires a full attendance of the membership.

TO HOLD INQUEST THIS EVENING

There have been no new developments within the past twenty-four hours in the tragedy which resulted in the murder of Charles Buckholdt, and for which two men, John McMonigal and Albert Kerner are now being held in the borough lockup. Coroner Heffran will hold an inquest this evening at 7 o'clock at the Frye morgue. Fallowfield avenue. and endeavor to ascertain the motive which led up to the crime.

McMonigal and Kerner have no statements to make at this time, and the evidence to be produced this evening will likely be largely of a circumstantial character. It is known however that the three men were together during the evening, and were seen shortly before the tragedy was discovered.

Dr McKay held a post mortem on the body of Buckholdt Thursday forenoon and found that a wound in the upper part of the right breast was the one responsible for the man's death. The windpipe was punstured and an artery had also been severed, which caused internal hemorrhage, and a short time later the man's death.

Funeral services for the murdered man will take place Saturday afternoon from his late home, with interment in Charleroi cemetery.

AMERICAN LEGION TO MEET THIS EVENING.

Charleroi Post, No. 22. American Legion will meet this evening at the borough building at 8 o'clock. A large attendance of members is requested by the officers, as business of importance will come up for consideration.

Harry S. Voorhes, who for the past four years has been with Jacob Wilner. a Washington clothing and shoe dealer, will come to Charleroi next week to assume charge of the shoe department of the Louis Collin's stores on Fallowfield avenue.

Send the children to the Matinees "Daddy Long Legs," eleven cents. Evening prices for all children seventeen cents. All who have seen this picture claim it to be Mary Pickford's best work. Today and Tomorrow.

Three Men Are Indicted For The Murder Of Otto Boehme

Two prisoners now in the Washington county jail, Andy Graylock and Emanuel Campbell, and James Pentland, now serving time in the Western penitentiary of from five to ten years, were on Thursday afternoon indicted for the murder of Otto Boehme at his home on Fallowfield avenue on the 21st day of last February.

The details surrounding the discovery of Boehme's dead body in the basement of his home last February are well known to Charleroi people, and the hunt for his murderers began as soon as the local police were notified.

It was some days before any clues were discovered, but when found Chief Albright and Officer James Murphy followed them closely. County Detective Marker also aided in the work, and it was not long before Graylock and Campbell were placed under arrest. Campbell was taken at Newell, while Graylock was arrested just as he was trying to get out of Charleroi, both of these arrests being made by Albright and Murphy. Campbell at the time he was arrested was on parole from the Western penitentiary. Campbell and Pentland are Americans, while Graylock is Polish.

The commonwealth, it is understood, has a strong chain of circumstances against the trio, sufficient it is believed to convict the men. All of this evidence will be presented when the case comes to trial, which will be during the present term of criminal court.

Requisition For Government Foodstuffs To Be Made Early

Postmaster Smith has had many demands from the people of Charleroi for price lists of foodstuffs which the government has for sale, but the department only furnished him with a few order blanks which he will be required to use in ordering goods through the regular channels.

A typewritten list has been posted in the lobby of the post office, setting forth 81 items which are available to the public for purchase, and the prices at which they will be delivered. Cash must accompany all orders, and requisitions will be made on Monday. Tuesday and Wednesday of next week. The goods ordered will be sent to Charleroi in bulk and distribution made by the post office forces to those who made purchases. The sale of this government foodstuff will entail a great deal of extra work on the part of the local post office officials, but it will be handled as rapidly as circumstances will permit. The first order for goods will be sent in on Monday, and those of our citizens who expect to make purchases through the post office should have their order made up as early as possible, then go with the cash to the post office and file. These sales will be made up in the order in which they are received and as only three days have been assigned by the government for making requisition it will be necessary for citizens to make up their minds quickly and act accordingly.

ARREST WOMAN BAIL JUMPER

Anna Haber, wanted in this county since 1916 on a charge of violating the liquor laws. and who recently moved back to this county from Illinois, where she had been residing since she jumped her bail in this county, received a surprise when arrested on Wednesday night by Constable Jericho of Monongahela and a State trooper at her home in Bentleyville. She was lodged in jail on Thursday on a bench warrant.

She had been arrested in 1916 by George Marker, now county detective. The woman was released on her own recognizance. She at once left the county and went to Illinois. She had lived there ever since, and only recently returned to this county, believing that the prosecution against her had been forgotten. Her case will be set for trial at this term of court

Civic League Meeting.

A meeting of the Charleroi Civic League will be held in the Masonic banquet hall Friday evening at 8:00 o'clock sharp. Business of importance. By order of the Chairman. 61-t1*

P. H. C. WILL BE IN THE BIG PARADE

A very enthusiastic and well attended meeting of Charleroi Circle. P. H. C., was held Wednesday evening in I. O. O. F. Hall. The following officers were installed by past president Mrs. Minnie Lape, who acted as Supreme Installing Deputy, assisted by C. B. Copeland as Grand Guide:—

President. Josephine Kline; Vice-president. J. E. Clark; Guardian, Bertie Blanchard; Guide. Laura McCoy; Companion, Ethel Hall; Sentinel, W. Cratty; Watchman, Arnold Gloor. Trustee, George Gunderman.

A communication from the committee on parade for the homecoming celebration was read and it was unanimously decided to participate. An earnest request was made to all members to turn out on that day with the Circle. A special meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Frank Kline, 310 Sixth street. Monday evening, Aug. 18th, at 8 o'clock sharp. Charleroi Circle had 57 of its members who served Uncle Sam in the great war. and the members feel that it is their duty to do honor to the boys on this occasion.

On the day of the parade the Circle will present several features, among them an Uncle Sam. a Liberty Girl, and the degree team in full costume, while a drum band will represent the "Spirit of '76."

MONESSEN AND DONORA WILL NOT AID IN HOSPITAL CAMPAIGN

Meeting This Afternoon To Decide On Future Plans

MAY POSTPONE THE PROJECT

A meeting of the Board of Directors of the Charleroi-Monessen hospital will be held at the municipal building this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at which time it is expected that definite action will be taken with reference to the campaign for the proposed new hospital building.

If the campaign is to continue it will go along without the aid of Monessen or Donora. This fact developed at a meeting held last Saturday in Charleroi, at which representatives from both of the above towns were present, and at which Monessen representatives appeared to find several objections to the campaign. At that time it was proposed that the representatives call off the campaign, but it was suggested that was a prerogative which belonged to the Board of Directors of the hospital, and action was postponed.

In the meantime, however, it is said that Mr. Kelly of the Monessen Savings and Trust company, who was prominent among the Monessen citizens in taking an active part in the campaign, telegraphed Dr. Edward Martin early in the week not to come on his proposed visit of inspection, as both Monessen and Donora were out of the campaign. This fact was made known Thursday afternoon, and resulted in the cancellation of the proposed visit of Dr. Martin and other members of the site committee to Charleroi and vicinity to select a site for the new hospital.

Mr. McAit and Mr. Holtzman visited Dr. Martin in Harrisburg on Tuesday and held a lengthy conference with him, in which Dr. Martin expressed himself as being highly pleased with the undertaking, and said that he would be here on Friday. When Mr. Holtzman arrived here Thursday morning to assume charge of the campaign he went to Monessen and held a conference with Mr. Kelly, when he was informed that Monessen and Donora were out of it. and that Dr. Martin had been so informed. that the two towns had no site to present, and that so far as they were concerned they were taking no further part in the campaign.

The withdrawal of the two towns will make it necessary for the hospital directors to determine upon a line of action. and if a new hospital is to be built. to so modify plans that the undertaking can be carried through with the aid of communities lo-

STEEL MILLS ARE AGAIN STORING COAL

The American Steel and Wire company is again storing coal in its yard atDonora, and already two large piles of bitumen have made their appearance, and are being added to every day. This coal is largely shipped in by rail, but quite a number of small mines are diverting their production to the Donora mills, which are preparing against any shortage which might occur during the coming fall.

The Carnegie Steel company is also storing large quantities of coal at Wilson, which will be used as a reserve supply. This coal is being brought in by rail, as all river shipments are being used at the by-product coke ovens. Quite a number of big steel concerns are storing coal at this time, taking advantage of what is usually a dull season to increase their stocks against any shortage which might occur later in the year.

BENTLEYVILLE LAWN FETE WAS A SUCCESS

The lawn fete held by the recently organized volunteer fire department was a success The fire laddies realized a neat sum, the total receipts amounting to $220.00. At least $160 will be cleared above expenses. The Fire Department wishes to take this opportunity to thank the ladies of Bentleyville for their kind assistance, also the people from the outlying country districts. The kindness of Paul Christina for securing the band at his own expense, and all others who assisted in making the affair a grand success. On Friday evening a public meeting of the Fire Department will be held in the Central Main Street school building. All citizens are urged to be present.

BIRDS OF A FEATHER

A Philadelphia editor, who perhaps still thinks the thoughts originating in the sectional turmoil of half a century ago, takes the Chicago Tribune to task for the following editorial written during the race riots in the Windy City:

"We are swiftly getting to the point where our thoughtful colored fellow citizens must look the facts in the face. There will be no political injustice. There will be social differences. They need not be unjust. They do exist, and they will. There have been repeated reports of trouble in neighborhoods into which colored families have moved. There is nothing in the law to prohibit negroes moving where they will, so long as they conform to law. It may be unjust and unreasonable for whites to resent this so called intrusion. But the whites do resent it. And thus the fact persists."

This does not cover the whole ground, but it is intelligent, it is sane, as far as it goes. It at least takes account of an instinctive race prejudice, an ineffable color line, as a factor that must be recognized—which is considerably more to the point than the familiar refusal to face the real situation and the pitiable effort to get behind a 'goat' by attributing racial outbreaks in the North to franchise restrictions in the South. It is the protesting Philadelphia editor who is guilty of useless "twaddle." The Chicago Tribune merely failed to go far enough. If its editor had cited nature's decree that birds of a feather must flock together in order to secure harmony, he would have put his finger on the fundamental cause of inter-racial friction and consequent violence in this country and elsewhere.

THE " LIBERATORS"

A copy of the "Liberator," a Bolshevist paper published in New York is interesting chiefly in the tone of its editorials and the spirit of its cartoons. There is not a word of constructive criticism of the existing order or of lucid explanation of the policies of the revolutionary forces. There is merely the cool assumption that the Bolshevists are saints and that the rest of the world, from the responsible heads of all governments down, are devilish oppressors of an awakened people. Judging from this sample, Bolshevism is a mere repetition of the old familiar complaint of the incompetent and the failures against the efficient and successful—the twaddle of the idling outs against the busy ins. One can only pity deluded people, in any part of the world who put their faith in "liberators" such as these.

A significant feature of the speech of Senator Lodge in the Senate Chamber on Tuesday, on the league of nations, was vigorously applauded by many members of the Marine Corps, who served in the Second Division of the American army in France. The "Devil Dogs" want none of it.

After the recent experience of the people in political operation of the railways, no one favors a continuance of that policy, but those who have some selfish interest to serve by putting over permanently on the people a policy which has resulted in increased charged for decreased services.

Soldiers testify that a million dollars' worth of aeroplanes, most of them new and ready for flight, were fired by the American military authorities in France two months ago. Well, this proves that we had aeroplanes to burn six months after the war was over.

The jury which has been hearing the libel suit of Henry Ford against the Chicago Tribune, for one million dollars damages, has awarded the plaintiff the sum of six cents as a balm for his wounded feelings. Henry's attorneys say it is a vindication, while the Tribune says it is a victory for the paper. So there you are. Anyhow, Henry will not have any money from the Tribune to use in fighting the high cost of living.

Once more the general public will have an opportunity to test its ability as a pedestrian. Street cars are mighty handy when you want to take a short journey, but when you have to walk is a different story.

No new discovery has been made by the New York banker who finds that the value of a dollar is 50 cents.

The Federal Government is said to have evidence that in several of the large cities the I. W. W. are trying to incite the negroes to acts of violence. Maybe, but race riots happened before the I. W. W. existed.

The Albany (Ga.) Argus-News reports that "bathing has become quite popular with the social set." In justice to the set named it will be taken for granted that the harried editor meant to say "swimming."

Great Alexanders.

Alexander Bell was the great American who invented the telephone, which is still called the Bell telephone; and Alexander Humboldt was a German traveler, statesman and the most distinguished naturalist of all times. One of his most important discoveries was the decrease in intensity of the earth's magnetic force from the pole to the equator. His most important book, "Kosmos," was written in his seventy-fifth year. He did much in his long life to further the science of the world.

Important Rivers.

Just as Egypt has been made by the Nile, so Mesopotamia has been made by the Tigris and the Euphrates. The view put forward with some authority that the rivers should be kept exclusively for irrigation and not be depended upon for transport is challenged on many grounds, one of which is that irrigation and navigation can be effectively combined, and indeed made mutually advantageous for many years to come.

Pope's Poetry.

His poetry is not a mountain-tarn like that of Wordsworth; it is not in sympathy with the higher moods of the mind; yet it continues entertaining in spite of all changes of mode. It was a mirror in a drawing-room, but it gave back a faithful image of society, powdered and rouged, to be sure, and intent on trifles, yet still as human in its way as the heroes of Homer in theirs —Lowell.

All Home Guards will meet at the M. E. Church Saturday, August 16 at 4 o'clock.

located south of Charleroi. Otherwise, foot the campaign, pay the bills and for the time forget about it.

The proposition to bring a neutral committee to the district to select a site was proposed by Mr. Kelly, of Monessen, who also suggested the names of the committee, all of whom were agreed to by the Charleroi representatives. It was known as the Monessen plan, and it was presumed that the site question had been disposed of when the announcement was made Thursday that the two towns down the river would not go along. This action appears to mean an end to the campaign.

Companionship.
If the boy is not a companion to his father it is generally because the father was not a companion to the boy when the boy was a little fellow. Companionship is something which must grow through the years, especially for two people who live under the same roof and share the same fortunes.

Sounded Like That.
Dorothy's mother was getting her to repeat the Lord's prayer, and all went well until near the end. "And deliver us from evil," said her mother. "And deliver us from measles," repeated Dorothy.—Boston Transcript.

Sure Sign.
Said the head barber (all barbers being head ones, strictly speaking), "I can always tell a man who is used to shaving himself by the way he tries to puff out his cheeks in ticklish places."

Mercy of the Future.
The veil which covers the face of futurity is woven by the hand of mercy.—Bulwer Lytton.

Daily Thought.
Love better is than fame.—Bayard Taylor.

The Interesting Loon.
The loon is one of the most beautiful and graceful of the wild water fowl, rivaling the wood duck in the markings of its plumage. On the Northern lakes there is no bird that can dive quicker or swim faster. Awkward and clumsy on land, but so active and alert is it in the water that it can dodge bullets. "The loon is a cousin to the beaver," says John Burroughs. "It has the feathers of a bird and the fur of an animal, and the heart of both. It is as quick and cunning as it is bold and resolute. When disabled so that it can neither dive nor fly, it is said to face its foe, look at him in the face with its clear, piercing eye, and fight resolutely till death. The gunners say there is something in the wailing, piteous cry, when dying, almost human in its agony.

Honoring French Soldiers
Of the methods of honoring soldiers for distinguished service on the field of battle, the "fourragers" conferred upon the crack regiments of France is one of the most original. It consists of a colored cord ending in a brass tag, the name being derived from the French word for a tethering rope for horses. Every officer and man in a regiment rewarded for gallantry in action by the fourragers has the right to wear this cord round the left shoulder. There are two classes of the distinction, one having green and red cord to correspond with the croix de guerre, and the other being in green and yellow, on the lines of the rarer medaille militaire.

Cyclist Good Driver.
An English automobile publication in discussing the qualifications of a driver, for either pleasure cars or trucks, quotes the experience of a large employer who said that, other things being equal, he always gave the preference to the man who had owned a motorcycle. Among his reasons for this were that a motorcycle owner understood something about the need for economy in gasoline and tires. Moreover, he had experience in driving an engine that requires more careful operation than the water-cooled auto engine, and consequently was more sensitive to any bad running of the engine; besides having a good idea of adjustments and repairs.

Plea for Tolerance.
The only atmosphere in which strong, manly controversy, which is one of the noblest activities of the earth, can truly live and flourish is the atmosphere of tolerance—an atmosphere whose elements are respect for personal qualities and trust in the power of truth.—Phillips Brooks.

SHE SUFFERED FIVE YEARS

Finally Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Key West, Fla.—"For five years I suffered from irregularities, with terrible pains and an awful weakness in my back. The doctor gave me different medicines but they did me no good. A friend asked me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I found it to be the best medicine I ever tried because it made me well, and I can now do my housework. I am telling my friends about it."—Mrs. J. M. CAMUS, 728 Caroline St., Key West, Florida.

Many women at some period in their life suffer from ailments peculiar to their sex and which in most cases may be readily relieved by this famous root and herb medicine, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, just as Mrs. Camus found it helped her after suffering for years and trying everything else in vain.

If you have any annoying symptoms you fail to understand, write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The results of their 40 years experience in advising women on this subject is at your service.
